In Spain, children and their families are riding bikes to school together in large groups. The project is called "bicibús" or bike bus. In Barcelona, the project starts with only five children and grows quickly to hundreds of members.

The bike bus begins around 8:25 every Friday morning. Everyone knows where to join. Most children ride their bikes, but others ride scooters(踏板车) or use skates. With music playing and bike bells ringing, the bicibús feels like a party. Nine-year-old María Pitarch says, "The best part of the bicibús is that we ride along and pick up my friends and we ride together." When students get to their school, they leave the bus and park(停放) their bikes.

is great fun, but is it safe for children? There are some bike lanes(车道), but there are also lots of cars. One of the roads used by bicibús has about 20,000 cars every day, so the police are helping stop traffic by riding in front of the bicibús and behind it.

Many people watch photos about bicibús on the internet. They think it's a good idea and it's easy to get started. Barcelona isn't the only place with bicibús. There are also bike buses in Madrid and other parts of Spain.

39. What is the new way for children to go to school in Barcelona?

- A. They go to school by bus.
- B. They ride their bikes in groups.
- C. They put their bikes on the bus.
- D. Parents take them to school by bike.

40. Which of the following can we put in the box?

- A. Playing with other children
- B. Going roller skating on roads
- C. Riding with a lot of children
- D. Listening to music when riding

41. What can we learn about bicibús?

- A. All the members ride their bikes.
- B. The busy traffic makes it not safe.
- C. The police stop children riding bikes.
- D. Everyone joins the group at weekends.
